

Household of Queen (Mother) Henrietta Maria 1660-1669

At the Restoration, the jointure worked out for Henrietta Maria at her marriage to King Charles I in 1626 settling on her revenue from Crown lands was reinstated. This yielded £25,000 per annum, which rose to £40,000 by the time of her death in 1669.¹

1. C. D. Chandaman, The English Public Revenue 1660-1688 (Oxford, 1975), p. 111. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 311 gives £30,000 plus a pension out of the Exchequer of £30,000.

Council and Revenue

Commission for Chancellor c. 1669

By 1669	Long, Sir R., Bt.
By 1669	Winter, Sir J., Kt.
By 1669	Wood, Sir H., Kt.

Secretary 1660-1669

1660	Winter, Sir J., Kt.
------	---------------------

Steward of the Revenue 1660-1669

1660	St. Albans, 1 st . Earl of
------	---------------------------------------

Treasurer and Receiver General 1660-1669

1660	Wood, Sir H., Kt.
------	-------------------

Comptroller of the Household 1660-1669

1660	Bond, Sir T., Bt.
------	-------------------

Chamber and Bedchamber

Lord Chamberlain 1660-1669

1660	St. Albans, 1 st . Earl of
------	---------------------------------------

Vice Chamberlain 1660-1669

The vice chamberlain made £200 per annum.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 305.

1660 Vantelet, --

Ladies of the Privy Chamber 1660-1669

Four ladies of the Privy Chamber were established at £150 per annum apiece.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 309.

By 1669 Bond, Lady
By 1669 Price, Lady

Gentleman Ushers of the Privy Chamber 1660-1669

Four gentlemen ushers of the privy chamber made £130 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 306.

Cupbearers 1660-1669

According to Chamberlayne two cupbearers made £120 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 306. This figure is almost certainly an error.

Carvers 1660-1669

According to Chamberlayne two carvers made £120 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 306. This figure is almost certainly an error.

Sewers 1660-1669

According to Chamberlayne two sewers made £120 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 306. This figure is almost certainly an error.

1660 Price, Sir H., Bt.

Gentleman Ushers of the Presence Chamber 1660-1669

Two gentleman ushers of the Presence Chamber made £120 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 306.

Grooms of the Privy Chamber 1660-1669

Four grooms of the Privy Chamber made £60 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 307.

Gentleman Ushers Quarter Waiters 1660-1669

Four gentleman ushers quarter waiters made £60 per annum apiece plus diet.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 307.

Pages of the Presence Chamber 1660-1669

There were four pages of the Presence Chamber.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 307.

Grooms of the Great Chamber 1660-1669

There were eight grooms of the Great Chamber.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 307.

Groom of the Stole c. 1669

By 1669 Richmond, Dowager Duchess of

Lady of the Bedchamber 1660-1669

1662 Mar. Richmond, Dowager Duchess of
By 1669 Newport, Countess of

Women of the Bedchamber 1660-1669

Eight or nine women of the Bedchamber were established.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 309.

Maid of Honour 1660-?

1660 Seymour, D.

Pages of the Backstairs 1660-1669

Four pages of the backstairs were established.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

Chief Laundress 1660-1669

1660 Sanderson, Lady

Seamstress 1660-1669

Starcher 1660-1669

Master of the Robes c. 1669

By 1669 ?Orke, Sir R.

Physician 1660-1669

One physician was established.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 308.

Apothecary 1660-1669

One apothecary was established.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 308.

Watermen 1660-1669

Twelve watermen were established¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

Chapel

Lord Almoner 1660-1669

The lord almoner made £800 per annum.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

1660 Montague, W.

Confessor c. 1669

The Confessor made £300 per annum.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

By 1669 Lambart, --

Preacher at Somerset House c. 1669

By 1669 De Soissons, B.

Clerk of the Private Chapel c. 1669

By 1669 Gough, --

Priest c. 1669

The priest of the oratory and assistant to the confessor made £200 per annum.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

By 1669 Gough, --

Lay Brother 1660-1669

The lay brother made £40 per annum.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

Master of the Musick 1660-1669

Master of the Queen's Games 1660-1669

Household Below Stairs

Chamberlayne lists a Buttry, a Cellar, a Pantry, a Ewry, "&c." without specifying offices, names, or remuneration.¹

1. Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 309.

Stables

Master of the Horse 1660-1669

1660 Arundel of Wardour, Lord

Chief Equerry c. 1669

By 1669 Wingfield, Sir E., kt.

Footmen 1660-1669

Twelve footmen were established.¹

Chamberlayne [1669 first edn.], p. 310.

Hunt

Master of the Buckhounds 1660-1669

Master of the Bows 1660-1669