

Household of George William Frederick, Prince of Wales 1738-1760

Before his coming of age in 1756, the servants of Prince George were paid out of the revenue of, first, his father, Frederick, Prince of Wales until his death in 1751, then his grandfather, George II. In 1756 he was given his own household establishment and £40,000 out of the Civil List to support it.<sup>1</sup>
